AlarmStickies

If you love social media and need to stay up-to-date with your friends and family, then you are surely aware of the fact that most people have access to so many different means of communication, from Twitter to Facebook, from Instagram to Snapchat, and so on. People are always sending out messages to the public on various platforms, and for a busy person, this can become quite a task, if you don't have access to a calendar. This is precisely where AlarmStickies comes in. AlarmStickies allows you to create a series of desktop reminders that will make it easy for you to see when events are happening. Additionally, you can create messages on the desktop, with customizable size, tinge and font. Moreover, you can view the busy dates on the quarterly calendar, a function that displays a set of three months. What can AlarmStickies do for you? AlarmStickies is capable of creating alarms, on a schedule. You can, for example, set alarms for important events, like meetings, doctor's appointments, or any other important/urgent task. You can create alarms for different people, and even for events that have a duration. The reminders will be placed on the desktop, and will show the date, the hour, the duration, and the message that is to be used. The window can be moved around the desktop, and it can be re-positioned with the hotkeys. You can even create reminders for the same day, such as on the calendar. Moreover, the reminders can be placed on the desktop so that they don't get lost in the list of icons. The reminders can even be animated, by using the default of the application. AlarmStickies is also capable of generating reminders that are based on an activity. Say, for example, that you need to send out emails. Every time you click on a link in your inbox, a reminder is generated for you. You can configure such a reminder and place it on the desktop, and you can configure it to show its message, the email address that the link leads to, and even the link itself. You can even generate these reminders based on a calendar event. The software is capable of generating and storing several such reminders on the desktop. These reminders will be displayed by showing a green triangle in the upper left corner. Each window will display the date and the hour that the reminder is to go off. You can also
