I had a college friend who'd spent years living in a nursing home and eventually died alone. She was relatively healthy until she got to the nursing home, where her social life and her routines were stripped away from her because she couldn't care for herself. I had a family member who had a heart attack and survived, only to see his health deteriorate to the point that he couldn't get out of bed or walk even if someone was helping him. It was horrific for all of us. If it had been me, I would have given up my entire life savings, sold everything I owned, and moved into a retirement home in a different state just so that I could stay close to my family. I can't say for certain that I'd
